PROJECTS

• Gas Pipeline Optimization

(Guide: Dr. Ajay Narayan Shukla , Feb-March 2025)

- Designed and implemented a gas pipeline optimization system using Minimum Spanning Tree (Prim's algorithm) to minimize total pipeline cost and distance.
- Built a web-based application (React + Python) allowing users to add nodes (gas stations and consumers) and dynamically generate optimized pipeline networks.
- Performed performance analysis across different network scenarios, improving efficiency by evaluating cost, computation time, and scalability.

• Clinic Management System

(B.Tech / Guide: Dr. Tushar Sharma , Oct-Nov 2025)

- Developed a secure clinic management system with role-based access control using JWT authentication for doctors, patients, and admins.
- Implemented core features including patient history management, appointment scheduling, and interactive doctor dashboards.
- Built a full-stack application using MongoDB, React, JavaScript, Express, and Node.js for efficient data handling and scalability.

• OMR Sheet Evaluation System

(B.Tech / Oct-Nov 2024)

- Developed an OMR sheet evaluation system using MATLAB and image processing techniques to automatically detect and evaluate marked responses.
- Implemented preprocessing steps such as grayscale conversion, thresholding, and contour detection to accurately identify bubbles and extract answers.
- Improved evaluation accuracy and efficiency by handling noise, skewed images, and varying lighting conditions.
